OCPA 2010 CONFERENCE

The Ohio Crime Prevention Association (OCPA) was founded in 1977 by a group of dedicated law enforcement officers concerned about the safety of Ohio residents. Today, as the largest state crime prevention association in the nation, OCPA is Ohio's central clearinghouse for state and national crime prevention and community policing training and resources, and maintains a diverse membership representing law enforcement, government, business, and community partners. OCPA conferences consistently provide participants with professional crime prevention training and a uniquely structured agenda that emphasizes peer networking as a valuable learning tool. From nationally recognized keynotes, to workshops on crime prevention leadership, A.L.I.C.E., hate crimes, media relations, cyber crimes, crimes against the elderly, and various other crime prevention topics, you will receive training and materials to more effectively build safer communities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- ◆ Crime Prevention Practitioners
- ◆ School Resource Officers
- ◆ Law Enforcement Administration
- ◆ Loss Prevention Managers
- ◆ University Professors and Students
- ◆ Volunteers In Public Service
- ◆ Community Policing Officers
- ◆ DARE Officers
- ◆ Health Care and Social Service Providers
- ◆ Government Officials
- ◆ Concerned Citizens and Citizen Volunteers
- ◆ American Society for Industrial Security Members

HIGHLIGHTS

- Presentations by national, federal, and state representatives on various crime prevention topics
- Specialists, speakers and trainers with cutting-edge and practical expertise and twenty-four training workshops for crime prevention practitioners and community leaders
- Opportunities to network with colleagues from across the state and nation
- OCPA training conferences get great reviews from participants and many repeat attendees

OCPA 2010 ANNUAL AWARDS

Crime prevention is everyone's business. It is the responsibility of all levels of government and communities. It is linked with solving social problems and is far more than security. Crime prevention requires a central position in law enforcement. It is cost-effective and may be tailored to local needs and conditions. Ultimately, crime prevention improves the quality of life for residents and empowers them to build a better future in their communities.

The Ohio Crime Prevention Association Annual Awards recognize and honor law enforcement and community partners for their exceptional efforts toward preventing crime, while educating and involving their communities in effective, long-lasting prevention strategies. The 2010 Crime Prevention Awards will be presented to award recipients at the OCPA 33rd Annual Conference Awards Program at the DoubleTree Hotel Columbus/Worthington in Columbus on Monday, April 12, 2010.

OCPA AWARD SUMMARIES

Award summaries should provide a comprehensive description of the individual, project or strategy being nominated for this year's award. Consider the following questions before writing your summary. Summaries may be no longer than three double-spaced, single-sided typed pages.

DOES YOUR SUMMARY . . .

- Describe the scope of the nominee's past and current involvement in successful crime prevention and policing initiatives, including those at the city, county or state level?
- Detail the nominee's crime prevention responsibilities, and commitment to the community being served?
- Identify positive changes in the community because of the nominee's work?
- Include a summary of the crime prevention project, community policing or homeland security strategy, and related goals and accomplishments?
- Relate how and why the project began?
- Explain how the project or initiative is funded?
- Provide information on the number of community partners, or residents involved in the crime prevention, community policing or homeland security initiative?
- Explain how progress of the project, initiative or strategy is determined?
- Describe the strategy employed to implement the project, initiative or strategy?
- Provide information on evaluation of the project, initiative or strategy?
- Answer why the nominated individual, project, initiative or strategy is most deserving of the award?

OCPA AWARD GUIDELINES

ENTRY FORM AND AWARD SUMMARY (REQUIRED) SUPPORTING MATERIALS (OPTIONAL)

Award nominations will be disqualified if all rules are not followed.

1. Entry forms and award summaries must be typed.
2. Submit a separate entry form for each award nomination submitted.
3. Submit a total of six (6) completed award packets for each nomination. This includes five copies and the original.
4. Award summaries may be up to three double-spaced, single-sided pages in length.
5. You may submit any supporting materials that you believe support your entry. You need only submit one set of supporting materials. Please note that these materials will not be returned.
